RULES OF PROCEDURE

discharge of their duties, in accordance with Article (10) of the Protocol.

7. A Member shall not be liable to civil or criminal proceedings, arrest, imprisonment or damages for what is said or done by him or her within or outside Parliament in the discharge of his or her duties as a Member.
8. Members shall be entitled to have access to any files or records received and held by Parliament or a committee, other than personal files and accounts which only the Member concerned shall be allowed to inspect.
9. Where a Member's privileges and immunities are unduly interfered with, the President shall take the initiative to intervene.
10. The President shall communicate his or her initiative under this Sub-Rule (9) to the Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline and inform Parliament accordingly.

Rule 11: Waiver of immunity

1. Without prejudice to Rule 10 Sub-Rules (1) and (7), Parliament shall have the power to waive the immunity of a Member in accordance with the Rules of Procedure.
2. The waiver of the immunity of a Member under Rule 10, shall only be on the ground of committing a criminal offence.
3. Any request addressed to the President by the competent authority of a Member State that the immunity of a Member be waived shall be announced in Parliament and referred to the Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline.
4. Any request addressed to the President by a Member or a former Member to defend privileges and immunities shall be announced in Parliament and referred to the Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline.
5. Any inquiry as to the scope of Members' privileges and immunities made by a competent authority shall be dealt with according to the prescribed rules on waiver under these Rules.

RULES OF PROCEDURE

Rule 12: Proceedings on waiver of immunity

1. The Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline shall consider requests for the waiver of immunity or requests for the defence of immunity and privileges, without delay and in the sequence in which they were submitted.
2. The Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline shall recommend the approval or rejection of the request for the waiver of immunity.
3. The Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline may ask the authority concerned to provide any information or explanation which the Committee deems necessary for it to form an opinion on whether immunity should be waived or retained.
4. The Member concerned shall be given an opportunity to be heard and may present any documents or other written evidence in support of his or her defence.
5. In the proceedings in respect of waiver, a Member may be represented by another Member of Parliament or a legal representative of his or her choice at his or her own expense.
6. Where the request seeks the waiver of immunity on several counts, each count shall be the subject of a separate decision.
7. The Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline shall treat matters concerning waiver with utmost confidentiality.
8. The Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline may propose to Parliament that the waiver of immunity should apply solely to prosecution proceedings and that, until a final sentence is passed, the Member should be immune from any form of detention or remand or any other measure which prevents him or her from performing his or her duties.
9. The Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline may offer a reasoned opinion about the competence of the authority in question and the admissibility of the request, but shall not, under any circumstances, pronounce itself on the guilt or otherwise of the Member nor on whether or not the opinions or acts attributed to him or her justify prosecution, even if, in considering the request, it acquires detailed knowledge of the facts of the case.

RULES OF PROCEDURE

10. The report of the Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline shall be the first business on the agenda of the sitting following the day on which it was tabled and no amendment to the proposals for a decision may be tabled.
11. Debate on the report of the Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline shall be confined to the reasons for and against each proposal to waive or uphold immunity or a privilege.
12. The Member whose privileges or immunities are the subject of the case shall not speak in the debate.
13. The proposals for a decision contained in the report shall be put to the vote immediately following the debate.
14. An individual vote shall be taken on each proposal contained in the report and where any proposal is rejected, the contrary decision shall be deemed adopted.
15. The President shall immediately communicate Parliament's decision to the Member concerned and to the competent authority of the Member State concerned, with a request that the President should be informed of any further developments in the matter.
16. The President shall transmit to Parliament any information received under Sub-rule (6) in the way he or she considers most appropriate and if necessary, after consulting the Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline.

Rule 13: Code of Conduct

In all matters, Members shall be guided in their behaviour by the Code of Conduct adopted by the Plenary and administered by the Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline under the supervision of the Bureau. The Code of conduct is set out in Appendix C.

RULES OF PROCEDURE

PART IV – COMPOSITION OF THE BUREAU OF PARLIAMENT

PART XI - MOTIONS

Rule 60: Written notice of motions

A Member shall give written notice to the President and the Clerk at least three days prior to the sitting at which he or she intends to move the motion.

Rule 61: Oral notice of motions

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 60, a Member may, with leave of the Presiding Officer, give oral notice of a motion during a sitting but the motion shall not be placed on the Order Paper until three days have elapsed since the notice was given, unless the Presiding Officer is of the opinion that it is in the public interest that it should be placed on the Order Paper prior to the expiration of three days, in which case the Presiding Officer may direct that it be placed on the Order Paper at such time as he or she thinks convenient.
2. Any oral notice of motion shall be reduced to writing and handed to the Clerk for circulation to Members.

Rule 62: Amendment of notices of motion

The Presiding Officer may permit the Member to move in amended form, without notice, a motion of which notice has been given if in the opinion of the Presiding Officer the amendment does not materially alter any principle embodied in the original motion.

Rule 63: Seconding of motions

1. A motion or an amendment to the motion shall not be debated in the House unless it has been seconded.
2. Motions in committees need not be seconded.

RULES OF PROCEDURE

Rule 64: Amendment to motions

1. When any motion is under consideration by the House or by a Permanent Committee, an amendment may be proposed to the motion if it is relevant to the motion.
2. Any amendment may be proposed to the amendment if it is relevant to that amendment.
3. The Presiding Officer shall require any amendment moved and seconded in the House to be put in writing by the mover and delivered to the Clerk.
4. No amendment shall be permitted if, in the opinion of the Presiding Officer, it substantially alters the principle of the question proposed.
5. Any amendment to the motion which a Member wishes to propose under this Rule may be moved and seconded at any time during the debate of the motion.
6. When the amendment has been disposed of, the Presiding Officer shall again propose the question upon the motion as amended, as the case may require, and after any further debate which may arise on it, shall put the question for decision.
7. Any amendment to an amendment which a Member wishes to propose shall be moved and seconded at any time after the question upon the original amendment has been proposed by the Presiding Officer, and before it has been put by the Presiding Officer at the conclusion of the debate on the original amendment.
8. Upon any amendment to delete any of the words of a motion, the question to be posed by the Presiding Officer shall be "That the following words... be deleted from the motion."
9. Upon any amendment to insert words, or add words at the end of a motion, the question to be posed by the Presiding Officer shall be "That the following words...be inserted."
10. Upon an amendment to delete words and insert or add other words instead, a question shall first be posed "That the following words be deleted from the motion", and if the question is agreed to, the question then be posed "That the following words, be there inserted."
11. If the first question under Sub-Rule (10) is negated, no further amendment may be proposed to the words which were to be deleted.

RULES OF PROCEDURE

12. When every amendment to an amendment has been disposed of, the Presiding Officer shall either again propose the question upon the original amendment, or shall propose the question upon the original amendment as amended, as the case may require.

Rule 65: Withdrawal of motions

1. A motion or an amendment to the motion may be withdrawn at the request of the mover, by leave of the House or Permanent Committee, before the question is put on the motion or amendment.
2. A motion or an amendment withdrawn under this Rule may be proposed again, if, in case of a motion, notice is given as required by these Rules of Procedure.
3. If the question has been posed on an amendment to a motion, the original motion may not be withdrawn until the amendment to the motion has been disposed of.

Rule 66: Manner of debating motions

1. When a motion has been moved and seconded in the House the Presiding Officer shall pose the question on the motion in the same terms as the motion, and debate may then take place upon that motion and may continue for a period not exceeding one hour.
2. The Presiding Officer may at the beginning of any debate specify the period that each Member contributing to a debate may be given.
3. The Presiding Officer may call upon the mover to reply at the end of the period allocated for debate and immediately after the reply has been given, shall put the question to the House.

RULES OF PROCEDURE

PART XII - QUESTIONS

Rule 67: Questions on the Union

1. Questions relating to matters of the Union may be put to the Executive Council, the Commission or any other organ of the African Union.
2. Questions shall be referred to the Executive Council, the Commission or any other organ of the Union through the President at least thirty days before the sitting on whose Order Paper they are to appear.

PREAMBLE, DEFINITIONS, APPLICATION AND PURPOSE

PREAMBLE

Article 3 of the Protocol to the Treaty establishing the African Economic Community relating to the Pan-African Parliament of July 2000 provides that the objectives of the Pan-African Parliament shall be to:

- facilitate the effective implementation of the policies and objectives of the African Union;
- promote the principles of human rights and democracy in Africa;
- encourage good governance, transparency and accountability in Member States;
- familiarize the peoples of Africa with the objectives and policies aimed at integrating the African Continent within the framework of the establishment of the African Union;
- promote peace, security and stability;
- contribute to a more prosperous future for the peoples of Africa by promoting collective self-reliance and economic recovery;
- facilitate cooperation and development in Africa;
- strengthen Continental solidarity and build a sense of common destiny among the peoples of Africa;
- facilitate cooperation among Regional Economic Communities and their Parliamentary fora.

The establishment of the Pan-African Parliament is informed by a vision to provide a common platform for African peoples and their grass-roots organizations to be more involved in discussions and decision-making on the problems and challenges facing the continent.

Members elected to the Pan-African Parliament must maintain the highest ethical standard without improper personal gain as public representatives to achieve the objectives of the Pan-African Parliament.

Rule 13 of the Rules of Procedure of the Pan-African Parliament provides that Members shall be guided in their behaviour in all matters by the Code of Conduct to be drafted by the Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline.

The adoption of this Code of Conduct, drafted by the Permanent Committee on Rules, Privileges, Ethics and Discipline, shall detail a set of rules that will ensure that the conduct of Members of the Pan-African Parliament meets with the highest ethical standards required to carry out the duties of public representatives in conformity with the principles and spirit of the Protocol, the Constitutive Act and the Rules of Procedure of the Pan-African Parliament.

1. DEFINITIONS

APPENDIX D

REGIONAL ROTATION SEQUENCE

The principle of geographical rotation is an established practice of the African Union that obliges the Union and its organs to ensure that each region is elected as a member of the Bureau on a rotational basis. The composition of the Bureau represents the five defined regions of the Union and in consequence, the principle of rotation seeks to ensure that each region has the right to assume the five (5) leadership roles in a given Bureau rotationally.

Effective June 2022, the following order shall be used to elect the Bureau taking into account the past composition of the Bureau. The order of rotation shall follow the sequence outlined below:

Presidency (Southern Regional Caucus)

First Vice President (Northern Regional Caucus)

Second Vice-President (Eastern Regional Caucus)

Third Vice-President (Western Regional Caucus)

Fourth Vice-President (Central Regional Caucus)
